

Sun City Festival Hiking Club
HIKE DESCRIPTION FORM

Hike Name: Waterfall Trail Hike, White Tank Mountains

Location: White Tank Regional Park

Hike Description: This is an easy hike on a well-maintained trail. You can stop at “Petroglyph Plaza” to see the petroglyphs and then continue to the White Tank, a natural enclosed area that holds some water most of the year. The waterfall drops into the tank but unless there is some rain ahead of the hike it will not be flowing.

Rating: Easy

Type: In and out

Trail Name(s): Waterfall Canyon Trail

Length – Miles and Time: Approximately 1 mile in and 1 mile out, 2 hours.

Trailhead Start and End: Waterfall Canyon Trail Parking Lot

Elevation Change: Slight and easy 200’

Travel Directions: Drive the Sun Valley Parkway (east) to Cotton Lane, turn right (south) on to Cotton Lane. Drive to Olive Ave. and turn right (west) at Olive Ave. and drive to the Park entrance. Once in the park, follow the White Tank Mountain Road to the Waterfall Canyon Road. Turn left onto Waterfall Canyon Road and look for the sign for Waterfall Trail on the left. Parking is at that point.

Travel Time: 24 miles, 45 minutes

Parking: Yes, plenty